Day/Time: Saturday – 9:00 – 12:00 PM

Building/Room: Powdermaker Hall 245

Instructor: Jing Wang

Course Description: In this introductory course, students will learn the basics of video production: camera operation, sound, lighting and editing for field and studio production. Through hands-on workshops, screenings, lectures and readings, students will explore the visual language of the moving image. Exploring both conventional and experimental approaches to non-fiction video, students will learn to use moving image and sound for artistic expression and as a tool for effective communication on the urban experience. Students will complete individual video projects shot in the field.
