

Fall 2018 Course

Urban Studies 718 (01, 51376) – Governing the City

Day/Time: Monday – 6:30 – 8:30 PM

Building/Room: Powdermaker Hall 115

Instructor: Alice Sardell

Course Description: This course provides an overview of the major debates around the political and governmental forces, institutions, and movements that guide economic and physical development, the distribution of resources, and other aspects of daily life in urban areas. It examines what structures enable and constrain collective decision making about particular urban issues such as housing, immigration, economic development, education, and health.
